Wrens: Lexie for using her phonics knowledge to produce some wonderful writing.

Robins: Leila for working hard on her handwriting and applying her phonic learning to all her work.

Swifts: Jacob for his incredible acting skills and determination to be brilliant in the play.

Kestrels: Henry for using a thesaurus to find more adventurous vocabulary in his writing.

Owls: Markus Bokiss for confidently explaining his method for multiplying fractions by integers.

Golden Rules (Be safe, Be positive, Be kind)

Wrens: Leela for showing kindness towards all of her friends by making lovely name tags.

Robins: Lottie for her positive approach to her work and always following our class rules.

Swifts: Ben for his positive attitude towards his role in the performance.

Kestrels: Adelaide for always being positive in school and being a good friend.

Owls: Mo for giving positive peer feedback and identifying ambitious vocabulary choices in creative writing.

Learning Behaviours (Ready, Resilient, Responsible, Resourceful, Respectful, Reflective)

Wrens: Lucia for being ready everyday for morning activities.

Robins: Poppy for showing great resilience when drawing despite it being challenging.

Swifts: Mason for being ready to be an amazing performer!

Kestrels: William for his resilience in Maths lessons and always trying hard.

Owls: Emma for being resourceful in Art using a range of hatching techniques.

Lunchtime class of the week

This was awarded to Robins for their improved kindness towards each other whilst in the lunch hall.

Attendance

Swifts had the highest attendance this week with a good 95%.

As you are aware from recent communications, there are several illnesses doing the rounds in school. These things can't be helped, which is why it is extremely important that children have no other unauthorised absence (holidays or days out) in term time.

Wrens: 93.57%

Robins: 92.57%

Swifts: 95%

Kestrels: 86.67%

Owls: 81.79%

Learning Conversations

Madison in Wrens picked the names out of the box and I will be holding a Learning Conversation with:

Wrens: Ava

Robins: Henry

Swifts: Charley-May

Kestrels: Isabel

Owls: Theo

Outside Achievements

Well Done to the following children for their achievements outside of school.

Joseph (Owls) for achieving his Level 6 swimming certificate.
